Sister Noreen Walter, SCL is the director of Marillac Center. She has given retreats and workshops in the United States and Canada. Sister Noreen's sense of humor and delight in life encourage others to live life to the fullest. She inspires others with stories and examples from life! Her fifteen years in secondary education, along with her work in pastoral ministry and vocation ministry have lead others to live inspired lives with purposeful living.

Sister Noreen holds a masters degree in Pastoral Studies from Loyola Marymount University.

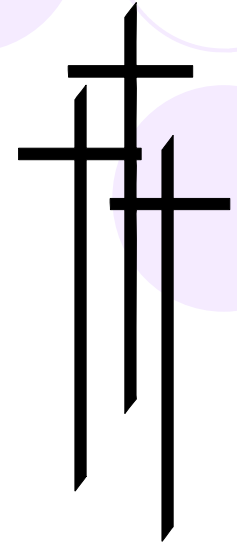

Sister Kathleen Wood, SCL is a member of the Marillac staff who also teaches Theology and Ministry at the University of Saint Mary. She brings a wealth of understanding of scripture and the spiritual life to share in retreats and spiritual direction. Her love of teaching from first grade to the university sparks listeners to engage both the mind and heart in seeking to deepen a relationship with God. Her lively interaction and easy humor invites others to integrate spirituality into their everyday life.

Sister Kathleen holds a Masters degree in Theology from Boston College and a Certificate in Religious Formation from St. Louis University.
